WE CHALLENGE YOU TO SHINE A LIGHT

TO RECOGNIZE THE ENERGY AND POTENTIAL

THAT RUN THROUGH THE WALLS OF MHS

WE CHALLENGE YOU TO FIND THE LIGHT WITHIN YOURSELF

AND TO UNDERSTAND THE BEAUTY AND POTENTIAL IT HOLDS

WE ASK YOU TO FIND THE LIGHT INSIDE YOUR CLASSMATES

AND REALIZE THAT IT IS THIS LIGHT ALONE

THAT CONNECTS US

AS HUMANS, AS MENTORS, AS PEERS

BUT MOST OF ALL

WE ASK THAT YOU TAKE THIS LIGHT YOU HAVE FOUND

IN YOUR SCHOOL, IN YOURSELF, IN YOUR FRIENDS

AND DO GREAT THINGS WITH IT

LIGHT THE WORLD WITH THE ENERGY YOU FOUND HERE

HII

LET IT GUIDE YOU AS YOU UNCOVER YOUR LIGHT TO THE WORLD

WHAT LIES AHEAD MAY BE UNKNOWN

BUT TAKE WHAT YOU HAVE DISCOVERED HERE

AND LIGHT THE WAY

SO YOU MAY SEE THE ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES

AND IF THE PATH BECOMES DARK AND UNKNOWN

REMEMBER WHAT MHS GAVE YOU

AND REMEMBER TO

SHINE ALIGHT

Mrs. Francis

The Class of 2012 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Linda Francis in appreciation of her tireless efforts toward making Marshfield High School the best it can be. Mrs. Francis has served Marshfield High School for 25 years as an English teacher and a Student Council Advisor. She has exhibited leadership and dedication to all whose lives she has touched. Her commitment and compassion make her a motivational leader and positive role model for students, faculty, and community members. Mrs. Francis's enthusiasm radiates throughout the entire Marshfield High School community. As an English teacher, her passion for her work inspires a love for learning in her students. She has the ability to make each student feel talented and important. Mrs. Francis's surplus of knowledge and cheerful personality that she brings to all of her endeavors earn her the respect and admiration of students, teachers, and the administration.

As a student council advisor, Mrs. Francis has helped organize countless orientations, leadership summits, and dances to create a positive environment for students. Each day, she challenges members of Marshfield High School to "make it happen," whether that "it" is a Pride Week Competition or a college application. No matter what the challenge, she is always there to provide words of encouragement and a big hug when needed.

During her time at Marshfield High School, Mrs. Francis has taken her own advice and has "made it happen." Her compassion and leadership have inspired countless students, faculty, and community members to strive for excellence and to try to make a difference in their community. Her genuine character, work ethic, and dedication to Marshfield High School make Mrs. Francis a shining example of what a teacher should be. Mrs. Francis, as we graduate together and continue with our journeys, know that you will always have a special place in our hearts.

- Kayla Joyal, Class of 2012

Dedication

The Marshfield High School 2012 Yearbook is dedicated to Mrs. Sousa because she makes the school a better place for teachers and students alike. She remembers nearly every student's face, name, and even their coffee order. She can start a conversation with a student she's never met before and make them feel like an old friend, and makes everyone's day better just by being herself. Her warm, bright, funny personality shows through in the time it takes to make a cup of coffee.

Mrs. Sousa's compassion is renowned at MHS; simply mentioning her name in the hallways releases a torrent of comments such as, "I love that woman!" or even, "I wish she was my mother." It takes a special kind of person to be so universally loved, and that's exactly what Mrs. Sousa is.

She genuinely cares about everyone at this school. Most people would have thought she was nice for putting out a bowl of candy on Valentine's Day, but Mrs. Sousa goes above and beyond—in addition to the candy, she sent flowers to countless students and staff to wish them well. This is just one example of how Mrs. Sousa works to make MHS a better place; she always puts in the extra effort to cheer everyone up, whether it's with a flower or just a smile.

The yearbook is dedicated to Mrs. Sousa this year because of how much the entire school benefits from her positive outlook on life. The class of 2012 may be ready to walk down different paths, but Mrs. Sousa's impact on all of us will stay with us forever.

- Caroline Seymour, Class of 2012

WE'RE FINALLY SENIORS

Class History

In our four years at Marshfield High School, the Class of 2012 definitely made its presence known Starting back in September of 2008, we walked through the front doors of MHS, barely able to find our homerooms in the English wing, but together we began our journey to unite as a class.

With Pride Week quickly approaching, we chose the Boys and Girls Club as our Deck the Halls charity and Pride Week rolled on as the officers danced their way to second place during the Thanksgiving rally. We turned the English Wing into the Polar Express, and volunteered on the Boys and Girls Club's Polar Express fundraiser. In January, we hosted Freshman Fun Night, where nearly all of the class attended this first event. Capturing the spirit of "March Madness," the class of 2012 established the annual MHS March Madness 3 vs. 3 Basketball Tournament for a competitive, enjoyable fundraiser.

Heading into sophomore year, the class settled into high school and during November's Pride Weel we found our niche, creating a first place pride poster to kick things off. Keeping the Boys and Girls Club as our charity, we turned our hallway into the classic board game Candyland. Later in the year, the class planned the "Sophomore Fashion Show" but after rescheduling twice, the name was changed to the "Junior Fashion Show" and progress would be continued in the fall.

The third time was in fact the charm. In September of junior year, the class officers picked up where they left off and the Junior Fashion Show "Closet Classics" set a new tone for the year. In the same month, we held Family Fun Day at Shaw's Supermarket with fun carnival games for the families of the community. The class of 2012 also hosted the first annual Dodgeball Tournament in response to the students' wishes. By the time Pride Week returned, the junior class was prepared. This year's charity was the Special Olympics, and a group of juniors volunteered to help with the flag football tournament at Gillette Stadium. After a week of battling for points, the juniors came up only a few points short of winning the Pride Cup, keeping the seniors on their toes until the rally. May 20th, 2011 brought the Junior Prom at Indian Pond Country Club with the theme "Never Let You Go," because by this point we had united more as a class as we danced, laughed, and took hundreds of pictures.

Already, senior year had arrived, and it was time to make the traditional trek for Meeting on the Mountain together. By November, the senior class was ready to take on Pride Week and Deck the Halls. For the third year in a row, we won first place for our pride poster that was literally larger than "Life." With Birthday Wishes as our charity, we donated hundreds of birthday supplies to underprivileged children and reverted to our childhood instincts as we transformed the hallway into one big birthday party and earned first place. Thirsting for redemption against a fierce junior team, the senior Powderpuff team, joker faces painted on, took the field by storm and came out victorious at the end of the day. Our Pride Week performance was one for the record books. At the end of the week, we earned the most points in Pride Week history. On March 2nd, 2012, the seniors dressed up and headed to the top of the Prudential Building for Senior Night Out, an absolutely unforgettable night of dancing and friendships.

As the year progresses, we look forward to the future: senior spirit week, boat cruise, field day, and most importantly, graduation and life afterward. In four years, we have grown together, found our best friends, and even danced atop the entire city of Boston, and the memories at Marshfield High School will be lifelong.

Sincerely The Class of 2012 Officers,

Kara Ryan Sarah Williams Brian Edwards Cara Gomes Emily Burke Ann Bumpus To the Class of 2012,

Not sure where to begin here! There is so much I want to say and so many people that I want to thank! This position as a class advisor has been an incredible experience for me! So, I will do my best to recognize some of my most memorable moments with the Class of 2012.

First off, I would like to say thank you to the entire Class of 2012—obviously, without all of you from the get go we would not have created such an amazing journey—a journey that will forever remain with you as you grow old. When you reminisce about the good old days at Marshfield High School, you'll just smile and say we had fun! As a class, we did some amazing things! We reconnected with the Boys and Girls Club; we donated time for the Special Olympics; we celebrated the charity called Birthday Wishes; we jumped around at Freshman Fun Night with our tie-dye shirts; we walked the runway for our Fashion Show; we got decked out to the nines for our Prom; we hiked a mountain; we represented during Pride Week and Deck the Halls; we danced on top of the world at Senior Night Out! We had fun! We celebrated and took advantage of the moments and created memories that will last us a lifetime! What more could you ask for?

Secondly, I want to thank those who made all of the above possible! Past advisors, Ms. Funder was a mentor from the start and was incredibly helpful throughout the last 4 years—thank you! Ms. Pelkowski and your seniors—you guys were extremely generous and very helpful when we were Freshmen and you set the tone on how to "Pay It Forward," and for that we are forever grateful—thank you! Ms. D'Amato, what can I say, I'm not sure if I could have done this without your guidance and with your binders—you saved me, and for that I cannot thank you enough! Dr. Smith, your experience wisdom, and foresight as a class advisor was immensely helpful, and I appreciated all of your help and support over the last 4 years! Ms. Sangster, your support, advice and cookies made me feel better, and I am fortunate to always have you there when I need someone to bounce ideas off of—thank you for your time! Mr. Kopp and Mrs. Weiand, good luck on your adventure with your class; I hope to pass down some knowledge, paint and paper! All kidding aside, enjoy it as much as you can, because I can't believe I am here writing this letter! It's amazing how fast time flies, especially when you are having fun!

Last but not least, I want to express how grateful I am for having a once in a lifetime opportunity—there's nothing like a first kiss or first love and there's certainly nothing like having your first class as an Advisor! Would I do it again? Sure! But I can guarantee you nothing will compare to what I have experienced with you guys as a class! To be honest, I could not have done this without the help of my class officers—Kara Ryan, Sarah Williams, Emily Burke, Brian Edwards, Cara Gomes, and Ann Bumpus. Each of you did an amazing job and made this undertaking as an advisor enjoyable! I truly could not have done this without all of you and I want to personally thank you all from the bottom of my heart for your commitment and dedication to your fellow classmates!

All the friendships, hugs, high 5's (air guitars), and "man hugs" that I received along the way will remain with me forever! Thank you Class of 2012 and good luck on your future endeavors—I love you guys!

- I, Meaghan Graham, leave Lorrin Farrell the ability to get to school on time, trips to Wendy's and jersey accents Jessica Conroy crazy car rides to and from school, and I leave Brooke Prendergast BLACKOUT.
- I, Stephanie Harris, leave Johnny Harris the Tahoe and Julia Logan all of the advice she needs whenever she needs it.
- I, Nicole Hunkeler, leave Lindsey Caputo endless coffee dates and long conversations, leave the swim team with all of my RAMPRIDE, and leave Mrs. Almeida with my presence in her photo-lab forever.
- I, Kaileigh Jarvis, leave Brianna her own room which we once shared, my regular coffee order at Dunkies, permission to call me whenever she needs to talk; Stacey Damon all of our crazy, amazing, unimaginable memories we've had since we met at dance class at age three wouldn't be anywhere without you girl; and Mrs. a new student to turn the tv on everyday to watch MSB during homeroom since no one else does it.
- I, Haley Johnson, leave VS some common sense, LD the curtains, MHS Drama Club extraordinary work.
- I, Jessica Kelliher, leave Melissa a room to herself, a silent car ride every morning, and the secret entrance from the martinson parking lot. To Ryan Hatcher I leave my presence at the house everyday, our three best friend memories, and our love/hate relationship. To Renae I leave someone to talk to if you ever need to vent, an endless amount of memories, and a best friend for life.
- I, Gianna Kinsman, upon my departure leave Kayli Roderick the role of quarterback of the viola team.
- I, Trevor Langley, leave Hannah and Marissa LaSalle and Ben Joyal the school to do with it what they will.
- I, Kellie Loftus, leave Amie the car to get wherever she needs, lunch making responsibilities, and two more years of homework-filled craziness.
- I, Joseph McLaughlin, leave Nicolas Biagini: the back room and the pirate hooker dress tradition, Lizzy Stan Blake: that coffee can at the top in the back room that says "Lizzy," and Lindsey Caputo" the password "water," don't drink it too fast.

- I, RJ Neuls, leave my truck to Max Hemingway and Andrew Geddes(don't do burnouts haha) I leave my Rugby and Hocley equipment to my Brother Brian and my dog lilly. I leave Fitzo fruit strips
- I, Caroline Norton, leave Vanessa Silvia a replacement bag of trail mix and skating Saturdays with Ian, and Trevor Sheehan some peace and quiet... and Baby.
- I, Tucker O'Leary, leave my sister Ella M. O'Leary the blue '98 Subaru (don't drift to much I don't know how much more the sway bar can handle). I leave me hand on the wall for all the drama kids to come, and I leave Chris Putnam First chair in wind ensemble. I have faith in you and you're going to be a great musician.
- I, Brendon O'Neil, leave Allie Brown my heart decisions,
- I, Gabby Perez leave Adam Perez my white station wagon that he loves so much, Ella O'Leary in MVP first violins in Chamber Orchestra and my "Angel's" (Sara, Mariah, and Kayla) Temporary and Temporary Jr. I, Shannon Porter, leave the invisible ice seraper and endless rides home to Jake, someone to cheer for her gymnastics skills and sing with at Tumblefun to Megan, and my country music to listen to on car rides to Annie.
- I, Shannon Porter, leave the invisible ice scraper and endless rides home to Jake, someone to cheer for her gymnastics skills and sing with at Tumblefun to Megan, and my country music to listen to on car rides to Annie.
- I, Courtney Quinn, leave Jill my awkwardness, and Claire my laptop.
- I, Mary-Kate Roffey, leave Rose Taylor the driver's seat for last block adventures, student council toast to eat whenever they get hungry, and Jake Timcoe and Maddie Bowen the best NASC experience they could ask for.
- I, Kara Ryan, leave Meg Banks, Sarah Nicoll, and Josie Guarino unlimited signs for Mr. Ryan's lawn, Shannon Ryan a beanie, Converse, and perfect "flow," and Summer Burger and Olivia Gaeta future Red Mango dates.
- I, Eric Stilwell, leave Nick Biagini and Josh Noel all my solos in jazz band, Bosco and Robbie Rhodes the wood pile, and Chris Putnam my trombone.
- I, Mariah Thompson, leave Sara Dubrowski my random outbursts because she is the only one who could make it come out of me, Mariah Foley I leave you the name Mariah haha, and I leave my heart to the drama club because that is where I lived for the past 4 years and it made me discover myself and be a better person.
- I, Alison Wiedmann, leave Brian Edwards all the gas in the world, Jackie Cirone a friendship since third grade, and Megan Sanfilippo a home cooked meal of pasta with sauce and texas toast.

Nick Gendreau

Dear Nick,

I am so proud of you. Your strength and character, and that of your sister as well, motivate me everyday and provide me some peace and resiliency. We all have had a very emotionally challenging few months, but I am confident that Dad & Pops will be looking down over your graduation and beaming with pride and adoration. I believe they watch over us daily. Please hold tight to your dreams Nick, be relentless in your pursuit of happiness, challenge yourself daily to be the best you can be. Help others who can be comforted by the support you can provide due to your own life experiences, but also, be generous to yourself. Strive to make the world a better place by sharing your thoughts and ideas freely, and know that you will always have the guidance and support of your family as you pursue your future endeavors.

We love and respect you dearly! We can't wait to see you on T.V.!

The measure of success is not made by the fact you've reached a destination, but, by the path you've taken and what you have done to reach it. Now that you've taken those first steps on that path, remember someone is always here to share in your triumphs and joys, and to help ease your sorrows and pain. SCIENCE&DISCOVERIES-

TURNING A NEW LEAF

A team of MIT researchers developed an "artificial leaf" that could be used to soak up the sun's energy and store for later use. Leaves absorb, convert and store solar energy and this new man-made silcon leaf mimics those abilities. Given that the sun is our most renewable resource, scientists look to maximize it with new technologies like this.

LASER RAIN

A new method to create rain was researched by European scientists. By using lasers in the atmosphere, they were able to change moisture levels and create small water droplets. Although the drops weren't big enough to reach the ground, they may help promote natural rainfall

YOUNG SCIENTISTS

Thirty middle school students gathered in Washington D.C. to showcase their scientific talent at the Broadcom MASTERS™ (Math, Applied Science, Technology, and Engineering for Rising Stars), a program of Society for Science & the Public. The finalists faced off in team challenges and shared indivicual research projects. First prize went to California's Daniel Feeny, 14, who proved that the force of waves doesn't affect the variety of plants and animals that live close to shore.

CREEPY CRAWLIES

The world's largest insect, a Giant Weta, was discovered in New Zealand, but has been around for a very long time and predates the dinosaurs. This particular insect weighed in at 2.5 ounces and measured over 7 inches in length, making it the biggest insect on record

LIKE A DREAM

A study suggested that dreams can act as therapy for life's emotional events. When shown emotion-provoking pictures before sleep, the part of the brain that handles emotion "powered down" during the REM sleep stage. Also, individuals said they felt less emotionally charged when they awoke, which led researchers to believe they gained relief from their recent, painful memories

AIR SURFING

The MagSurf brings dreams of levitation to life. University Paris Diderot researchers built a skateboard-like platform that can float above a magnetic track with a person standing on it. The superconducting matter inside the skateboard is cooled by liquid nitrogen, which allows the board to hover above the magnetic track.

A new planet made of diamond crystals was discovered by a team of astronomers. The planet, which is 60,000 km in diameter, is 5 times larger than Earth and is part of the Milky Way.

ONE FAST NEUTRINO

For over a century, it was believed that nothing traveled faster than the speed of light. That all may have changed when scientists clocked a tiny particle called a neutrino traveling faster. The difference in speed was so slight that some scientists remained skeptical and continue to retest for accuracy.

POPULATION BOOM

The world's population reached 7 billion in 2011, growing at a faster rate than ever, due in part to longer lifespans.

NOBEL PRIZE WINNERS

Scientific advances were made in physics, chemistry and medicine. Topics such as the expansion of the universe, the structure of crystals and how the body's immune system flights infection earned scientists distinguished Nobel prizes this year

SMART STAT

The introduction of the Nest Learning Thermostat delivered a new kind of "thinking" thermostat for home owners. Its design is compact and sleek, plus it learns from past behaviors to adjust temperature automatically. Over time, it could help people cut energy costs.

WARMING CLIMATE

The UN World Meteorological Organization announced that 2011 was shaping up to be the 10th warmest on record and that 13 of the past 15 years have also been among the warmest.

ANIMAL DISCOVERIES...

DOLPHINS SENSE ELECTRICITY

Biologists discovered that Guiana dolphins not only find food by listening to echo sounds, but by using dimples near their snouts to sense electric fields and locate their prey. Further research may be conducted to learn if other ocean creatures have the same ability.

NOCTURNAL FROGS

Scientists in India discovered 12 new frog species. The frogs were especially difficult to find because they only came out during the night.

TECHTOPICS-

TOUCHY TECHNOLOGY

Researchers at Microsoft and Carnegie Mellon University teamed up to create OmniTouch, a camera and projector device that tracks motion and allows any surface to become a touch screen. The new technology can be projected almost anywhere, such as on a wall, an arm or a sheet of paper.

eBOOKS ON LOAN

More than 11,000 libraries around the country allowed patrons to borrow eBooks to read on their Kindle devices or app.

Taylor Burghard from Missouri is a young entrepreneur. At age 13, she started her own business called TekChick Designs where she creates and sells jewelry using recycled computer parts such as keyboards.

4D THEATER

Movie goers experienced a new sensation with scratch-and-sniff cards to use while enjoying the movie Spy Kids. This new "4D" experience engages the audience by connecting the sense of smell to the movie visual on the screen.

MOVING EXPRESSIONS

Researchers from Japan created an innovative wheelchair prototype for people who are paralyzed. Users control the chair with various facial expressions via electrodes connected to their face.

IL HOTTIZONG/Kohrs II. mdey

PING PONG BOTS

Students at China's Zhejiang University created Wu and Kong: robots capable of playing table tennis. Cameras allow the robots to "see" and react to the ball's location with their next hit. They can play against each other or even with humans.

TALK TO THE PHONE

Voice activation technology, made popular with the release of Apple's iPhone® 4S, provides a feature named Siri that allows users to literally talk to their phones and get responses to questions.

GOOGLE GOES SOCIAL

Google launched its own social networking site, Google+. Features such as "circles," "hangouts," "huddle" and "sparks" provide the difference between Google+ and Facebook – giving users a choice in who they share content with.

TRACKING FOOTWARE

Shoes with GPS technology hit the market to track the location of people with dementia and Alzheimer's disease who may wander or get lost as a result of the condition.

SWEET MESSAGE

QR codes were seen everywhere – even bakery items became a part of the craze. Qkies, created by a German company, includes cookie mix and QR codes printed on edible paper. Just place the QR code paper on top of the cookie and scan it before eating

NOT YOUR AVERAGE HUMVEE

Designs for a "flying Humvee" were unveiled. The vehicle, intended for military use, must be versatile – able to fly, drive through rough terrain and be protected in warfare. Though currently in the initial phases, a final release is planned for mid-2015.

FLYING HIGH

A tiny, flying, remote-controlled robot with visual and audio sensors was created to resemble a hummingbird. It was built for spying purposes and to enter situations that may pose a danger to humans.

BIONIC LIMB

A robotic arm that can be controlled by a person's brain was tested for patients with spinal cord injuries. Researchers discovered how a computer in the arm can pick up brain signals, which ultimately puts the arm in motion. It can even sense textures, temperatures and vibrations.

DIGITAL DRUMS

The Digital Drum was designed to help give Ugandans living in rural areas access to education. The device is a solar-powered computer made from an oil drum, which makes it durable to withstand the elements. UNICEF plans to deliver 200 drums over the next 2 years.

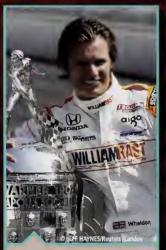

SCOREBOARD-

NOVICES NAIL PGA GRAND SLAM

For the very first time, the 2011 PGA Grand Slam event featured 4 players who won their first major golf tournament during the same year. The new champs included: Charl Schwartzel (Masters); Rory McIlroy (U.S. Open); Darren Clarke (British Open); and Keegan Bradley (PGA Championship). In the end, Keegan Bradley took home the 2011 PGA Grand Slam title; he topped Schwartzel by a single shot in the final round.

INDY 500 WINNER REMEMBERED

Dan Wheldon prevailed with a 1st place finish in the 2011 Indianapolis 500. Sadly, only a few months later, Wheldon lost his life in a racing accident during the Las Vegas Indy 300.

CARDINALS SWOOP SERIES

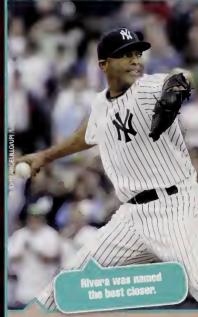

The St. Louis Cardinals snapped up the World Series win in Game 7 against the Texas Rangers with a final 6-2 score. Third baseman David Freese was awarded the MVP trophy.

ON PAR

South Korea's So Yeon Ryu became the 2011 U.S. Women's Open champion after a tie-breaking 3-hole playoff against her home country rival, Hee Kyung Seo. This was Ryu's first major title.

RIVERA'S RECORD

N.Y. Yankees closing pitcher Mariano Rivera set a new record with his 602nd career save recorded in a home game against the Minnesota Twins.

LYNX PROWL THROUGH ATLANTA

For the first time in franchise history, the Minnesota Lynx claimed the WNBA championship title. With their eye on the prize, the Lynx won their last 6 games in the post-season, including a victory-clinching 3-game sweep against Atlanta.

TENNIS CHAMPS

Australian tennis player Samantha Stosur won the US Open, her first major title, by beating 13-time Grand Slam Champion Serena Williams in 2 sets. Novak Djokovic also had quite a year--he beat Rafael Nadal in the US Open and became the 6th man to win 3 Grand Slam titles in one year.

WOMEN OF THE WORLD

In a final shootout, Japan triumphed over the U.S. team 3-1 to win the Women's World Cup in Frankfurt, Germany. Japan's victory marked the first Women's Cup win from any Asian country.

A GIANT WIN

It all came down to a nail-biting fourth quarter between the New York Giants and New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. As fans of both teams sat at the edge of their seats, the Giants scored a comeback touchdown with just 57 seconds left on the clock and held off the Patriots from scoring more points. The Giants prevailed and star quarterback Eli Manning was named Most Valuable Player.

BOSTON TAKES THE CUP

For the first time in nearly 4 decades, the Boston Bruins claimed the Stanley Cup after winning Game 7 against the Vancouver Canucks in the NHL Finals.

X-TREME SPORTS

Snowboarding was hot at the Winter X Games. For the first time ever, a full triple cork was successfully completed in the Big Air event by two athletes, Mark McMorris and Torstein Horgmo. McMorris won gold and Horgom the silver medal. Sensation Shaun White didn't disappoint and got a perfect score on the SuperPipe despite an ankle injury. On the women's side, Kelly Clark earned a gold medal on the SuperPipe

DALLAS BEATS THE HEAT

The Dallas Mavericks beat the favored Miami Heat in Game 6 of the NBA Finals. MVP Dirk Nowitzki of the Mavericks led the team to victory with a final 105-95 score. Coach Rick Carlisle joined a small group of NBA title holders who both played on and coached a winning team.

KINGDOM CROWNED

Animal Kingdom galloped away with the win at the 137th Kentucky Derby. The horse won after leaving the competition behind mid-race. It was Animal Kingdom's first time on a dirt track, and also the first Derby win for trainer Graham Motion and jockey John Velazquez.

LITTLE LEAGUE WORLD SERIES

The California little league baseball team claimed the title of 2011 world champions in a close game against Japan. The final 2-1 score made it the 6th U.S. win in the last 7 years.

GO FOR THE GOAL

The LA Galaxy won the Major League Soccer championship against the Houston Dynamo. The 1-0 win marked the Galaxy's third MLS title in franchise history.

CHARTTOPPERS

A SWEEP FOR SWIFT

Taylor Swift won big at the American Music Awards with 3 awards including favorite Artist of the Year, Country Female Artist and Country Album. It was Swift's second time receiving Artist of the Year.

MTV VMAS DAZZLE

It was a big night for Katy Perry, who captured Video Of The Year honors for "Firework," her first-ever Video Music Award, and took home a total of 3 moon men trophies by the end of the evening. Lady Gaga's "Born This Way" won Best Female Video; and Justin Bieber scored Best Male Video for "U Smile."

COUNTRY MUSIC AWARDS

The Country Music Association celebrated its stars at the 45th CMA Awards ceremony hosted by Carrie Underwood and Brad Paisley. The biggest award, Entertainer of the Year, went to Taylor Swift. The Band Perry won Best New Artist and Best Single for "If I Die Young." Lady Antebellum was named Best Vocal Group.

YOUNG STARS SHINE

Willow and Jaden Smith (children of Will Smith and Jada Pinkett Smith) rocked it in 2011. The singer and actor siblings were both nominated for NAACP Image Awards and later in the year, shared the BET YoungStars Award.

KIDS' CHOICE AWARDS

The Kids' Choice Awards lived up to its hype by covering stars in its signature gooey, green gunk. Between jokes and pranks, some of the night's biggest awards were presented to Justin Bieber for Favorite Male Singer and Favorite Song for "Baby." SAYWHAT?!

LEGO MAN ASHORE

A LEGO-inspired statue measuring 8 feet tall mysteriously appeared along the shore of a Florida beach. Oddly, the LEGO company was not responsible for its appearance. Later, it was discovered that the statue belonged to a Dutch artist and similar LEGO man appearances have occurred around Europe.

RACHEL'S LEGACY

Instead of birthday gifts, 8-year-old Rachel Beckwith requested donations for charity:water, a group that works to provide clean water for people in developing nations. Not long after her charitable wish, Beckwith lost her life in a tragic car accident. Her mission lived on and people donated over $1 million in Rachel's honor.

FAR FROM HOME

An emperor penguin was found in New Zealand, more than 2,000 miles from its Antarctica home. It was only the 2nd time ever that an emperor penguin was spotted in New Zealand. A local zoo treated and released the penguin, nicknamed Happy Feet after the popular movie.

JUSTIN BIEBER WAY

Eleven-year-old Caroline Gonzalez won a contest and was named "Mayor for the Day" in her Texas town. As her first order of business, she renamed Main Street "Justin Bieber Way" in honor of her favorite singer; however, the name change was temporary.

TIMELESS TOYS

The dollhouse, Hot Wheels® and the blanket were inducted into the Toy Hall of Fame. To earn this honor, a toy must sustain popularity over time, and evoke creativity and discovery in child's play.

PUT YOUR $ WHERE YOUR MOUTH IS

An Ohio dentist made a personal investment in the dental health of local children. He offered to buy kids' Halloween candy for $1 per pound in an effort to keep their teeth healthy and cavity-free.

NOT-SO-LUCKY

Despite making an amazing hockey shot at a charity event, an 11-year-old boy didn't get to keep the $50,000 prize money. Why? The boy's twin took the shot, even though his brother's name was on the raffle ticket. The event sponsor donated $20,000 to youth hockey in their honor.

SLIDING TO WORK

A train station in the Netherlands decided that rail passengers could skip the stairs and have a bit more fun with their commute. The solution? A slide called the "Transfer Accelerator." The slide is not only more fun, it is also more efficient.

LOST AND FOUND

A Massachusetts family needed rescuing after they could not find their way out of a corn maze. The couple had ventured into the maze with their baby and panicked when darkness approached. After the family placed a 911 call for help, police found them only 25 feet from the edge of the maze.

RECORD BREAKERS...

FRY FOR ALL

The University of Massachusetts set a record for the world's largest stir-fry. The meal weighed 2 tons, beating the previous record of 2,319 lbs., and contained hundreds of pounds of chicken and vegetables.

DO YOUR EARS HANG LOW?

A Colorado coonhound named Harbor set the world record for "longest ears on a living dog." According to the Guinness Book of World Records, the ear span measured over 2 ft. long.

HONDA-RIFIC

Joe LoCicero of Maine logged over 1 million miles in his 1990 Honda Accord. LoCicero credited the car's longevity to regular maintenance. To celebrate the milestone, Honda threw a parade and gave Joe a free 2012 Accord.

SURFS UP

Surfer Garret McNamara, 44, from Hawaii, successfully surfed a 90 ft. wave in Portugal – the largest surfed wave on record.

OLDEST MARATHON FINISHER

At 100 years old, Fauja Singh became the oldest man to run a marathon. Singh completed the Toronto Marathon in Canada after more than 8 hours. However, due to the absence of a birth certificate to document the runner's age, his remarkable accomplishment will not be recorded in the Guinness Book of World Records.
